New Caroline County Heritage Book to be published!

Have you ever dreamed of writing your own book? By participating in the forthcoming book, The Heritage of Caroline County, VA – 2012 your dream can come true! Each resident, former resident or person with roots in Caroline County is invited to submit a free 500 word family story and picture for the new volume! Pioneer families (who were in Caroline by or before 1870) will be allowed even more words and an extra picture. Everyone in Caroline County will be able to help write our new book!

Also included in the new hardbound, collector's edition book will be stories of Caroline County military heroes, communities, post offices, clubs, organizations, churches and schools. It is anticipated to be delivered in late 2012. The new book is part of the prestigious Virginia County Heritage series. To find out more about this exciting project, attend our next meeting, Tuesday, June 21 at 6:30 PM at The Timbers Restaurant in Ladysmith. Come and enjoy a free meal!

Come and help us preserve our Caroline County family history and heritage! For more information about the new Caroline County book you may phone toll free; 1(877) 264-3748, or email; coheritbooks@yahoo.com. Meantime, we've created a mini-website which give more details, including sample articles; www.county-heritage.com/va/caroline.
